Long Prairie High School

LONG PRAIRIE, MINNESOTA

In sincere appreciation of his generous service as athletic director of the Long Prairie High School, we, the seniors of 1952, dedicate this annual to MR. PETER SAJEVIC!

For the past three years Mr. Sajevis has trained the minds and bodies of our boys, preparing them to meet competition with a healthy spirit of sportsmanship. Since Mr. Sajevis has spent many hours working with members of our class, we wish to share the memories of our high school years with him in a special way.

After graduation we will long remember the sunny classrooms, big games, and gay dances. We will remember the dark halls crowded with schoolmates dear in our memories and glimpses of the proud brick building we lived in so long. We will remember the many, many events and faces -- our many years. Therefore, we will try to show you our happy years in Long Prairie High School.

The homecoming festivities for 1951 began as Mr. Balkenol struck the first chord of "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." The auditorium was suddenly hushed as the Fruetel twins, Carol and Gary, followed by the five queen candidates and their escorts, led the way to the stage. As each couple reached the stage the twins brought each escort a crown with which he crowned his partner a princess.

Following the coronation service and cheers by the student body, the women teachers, as darkies, presented a skit. "Peter, Peter Sajevis," was the cry! Their darkened faces and big gloves were most becoming.

Immediately following the pep fest, school was dismissed and work was begun on the field and the armory in preparation for the big game and dance. Hundreds of balloons added to the already effective decorations.

After the evening bonfire and pep fest, a parade through main street was the big event. Each of the princesses rode in an open convertible, a striking spectacle indeed! The parade wound its way to the athletic field, and as the princesses took their places on the 50-yard line, the game began. The Indians were most spirited and showed their will to win throughout the first half. The big moment of the evening came between the halves. Amid the rolling of drums and the cheering of the crowd, last year's queen crowned Mary Norris, queen of the 1951 homecoming festivities. After a striking performance by the L.P.H.S. marching band, the game was resumed. The Indians fought gallantly and, as a present to Queen Mary and the princesses, they defeated a tough Sauk Centre team 13 to 6. Victory was ours!

The Long Prairie High School band, under the direction of Mr. John Balkenol, has been steadily progressing over a period of several years until today it is recognized as an organization of "A" calibre. The band's numerous performances throughout the past year included concerts at the armory for servicemen, basketball and football games, the Halloween parade, and homecoming.

Band highlights of the year included a radio broadcast in conjunction with the band clinic at Eagle Bend, the district music festival, the Christmas concert, and the formal spring concert.

Bill Klang, trumpeter, has made an impressive name for himself and his horn. Three years ago he performed as guest soloist at the Minnesota and North Dakota State F.F.A. conventions. This year Bill appeared as guest soloist at the F.F.A. Convention in Kansas City, Kansas. Mr. Balkenol also attended the convention and served as judge by his popularity his future certainly looks

We, the graduating class of 1952, can now look back upon our fruitful years in L. P. H. S. Only seven of us -- Lois Minette, Audrey Meyers, Mary Lee Carlson, Mary Norris, Richard Dirschel, Inez Wirth, and James Thomas -- attended all twelve years together.

In the sixth grade, Bob Currie began his reign as dictator (class president) which continued throughout high school. Clayton Parker relieved him of his duty for our junior year.

In 1945, as freshmen coming from many different grade schools, we all began to work together and became a part of one great class.

As sophomores, we entered into the senior high school looking for new adventures and less work. We found the new adventures! The sophomore boys were given the honor of serving at the Junior-Senior Banquet, while the girls were hat check and punch girls.

We began our junior year by presenting our class play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," under Miss Martell's direction. It was a great success. Amid all this we sold Christmas cards and put on a terrific carnival. We were the first class to receive our rings in the spring and they are something we will always treasure.

Then it was Promtime and we plunged into the frenzy of preparing the ballroom and banquet. The theme "Rhapsody in Blue" was carried out effectively in the colors, blue and silver.

Seniors! That final stretch, that final year! For many of us it was like just another school year. As we progressed, we found we were busy with homecoming, our last football game of high school, our last Christmas concert, and the huge project of an annual which started before Thanksgiving. Finally, we put on our senior play, "Our Town," again directed by Miss Martell. This, too, was a splendid success.

On February 19 we presented a "Variety Show." In May we were the honored guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

Intermingled with all these activities were graduation pictures, announcements, and the signing of annuals.

Finally the big day came. We slowly made our way down the aisle to receive our diplomas and regretfully said our last farewells to friends in the halls of Long Prairie High School.

...and as the most important
school leaders passed
on their authority.

P.S. I'll be seeing you ten years from now to collect our bet! I'm going to be an old maid you know.

You'll have to write to me to make sure that I don't forget your key-chain.
I'm so absent minded that I'm sure to forget all about it.

I'm sorry if I broke your heart by making a "ducker" of myself by helping Tim
with his theme, but I can't help but be glad
that I did
it. At least
I won't be saying that he could
have graduated if
I hadn't
been so
stubborn.

and I'd
have done
the same
for anybody! In fact I always
got a feeling
of satisfaction from helping
any of my friends. It
pays off
in the long run!

It really
wasn't too
much work!

The Brains

Dear Jim,

Excuse the use of "this" page but it's about the handiest!

Don't ever forget the many good times we have had together - prom, carnival, class play, etc. We were always stuck for doing the work, right? It was always fun & the results always made our efforts worth while! Our only futile effort in four years was the one hour a week spent in band sectionals. Physics & trig weren't anything to crow about either!!

I'll never be able to thank you enough for being so swell to me the night of the Fireman's Ball. We saw all these things and you have seen them... through our eyes... and here

Be good & take care of yourself down at the U. of M. in the next few years. You're sure to make the grade! Write to me next year - letters will mean alot - Ohio's a long way from home! Love,

Ann
